MEETING DATE: July 20, 2017

SUBMITTED BY: Cindy Nash, City Planner

SUBJECT: Comprehensive Plan Meeting #5

Future Land Use Map

The draft Future Land Use Map has been out for public review. At this time, no public comments have been received. An open house is being held on July 13th at the Council Chambers. Any public comments received between now and the Comp Plan meeting will be brought to the meeting for the group's consideration. At this upcoming meeting, we will take one more review of the draft map along with any comments received, and make final revisions (if any) prior to utilizing this map for the preparation of engineering plans.

Goal Setting

A group strategic planning session will be the primary focus of this next meeting, with the purpose of developing the goals that will guide the Comprehensive Plan.

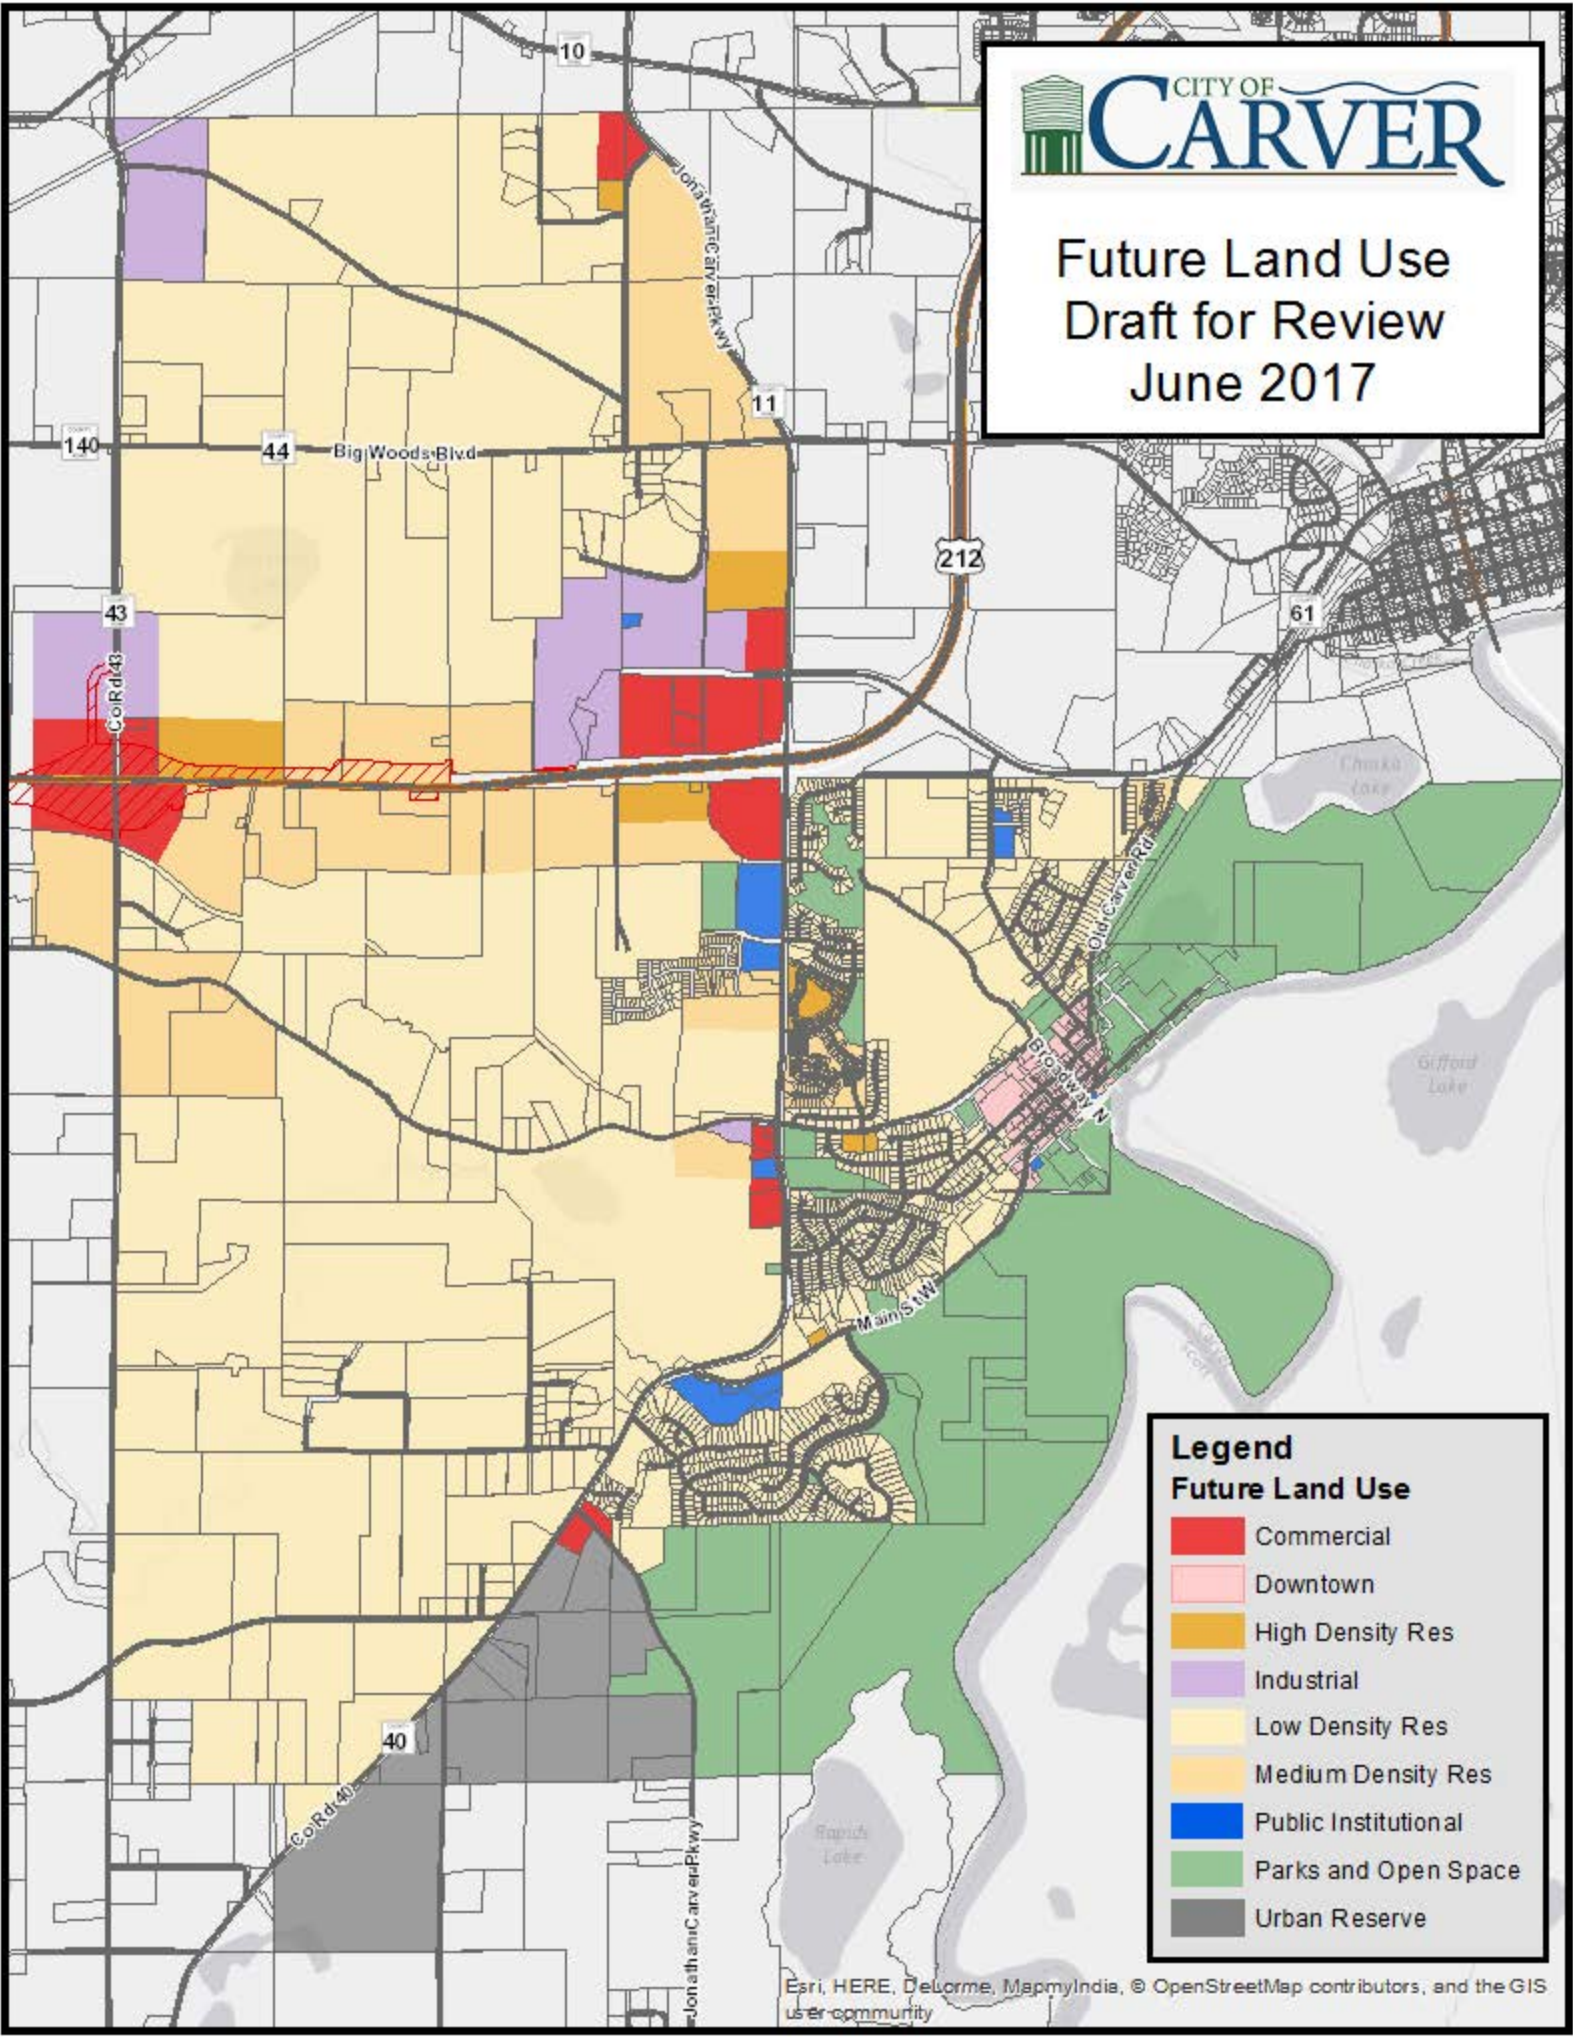

Please note that the Planning Commission meeting that typically follows this meeting has been cancelled. We will not have a required end time to the July 20th meeting and will be able to have the time needed for a lively discussion on goals.
